

St. Mark
LUTHERAN CHURCH
DAYS OF PRAYER
JANUARY 12-14, 2021

“Seek the Lord and His strength, seek his presence continually,” 1 Chronicles 16:11

How thankful we can be that we can enter into three days of prayers with our brothers and sisters in Christ who are also part of LCMC congregations around the country and around the globe! LCMC is a church body which is strongly rooted in the truth of God’s Word and in the belief that God is fully alive and calling us to follow Him.

Prayer is a wonderful gift, an ever-accessible gift and so as we enter into 2021 we do so in the confidence that God is listening to our prayers and answering them in His perfect way.

For these Days of Prayer we are simply asking that you take time each day using this booklet and the St. Mark Three Days of Prayer brochure to pray for (1) the concerns presented, (2) adding whatever prayers you may be inspired to say and you may (3) join with others in nationwide prayer. Please take an extra copy of the booklet and give it to a friend. They too will be enriched by the passages and prayers presented!

Thank you for participating in these Days of Prayer, may this ministry be a true blessing to you and those we are uplifting in prayer.

The following are suggestions for your use during these Days of Prayer:

One possible way to begin each time of prayer is to focus your mind by using a prayer known as "The Jesus Prayer." This very simple prayer has been used widely since its introduction in a book, The Way of the Pilgrim. This book describes a Russian peasant who traveled around trying to learn how to "pray without ceasing." (I Thessalonians 5:17) This prayer can be used to quiet the mind. It is short and simple but can also be used for deeper reflection as is demonstrated in the explanation below.

The Jesus Prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, Have mercy on me.

Lord - You are the One who hears ours prayer. Lord you are in charge and we are your servants. Help us choose to please the One whom we serve rather than to choose to please ourselves.

Jesus - You bless little children and care for people's needs. You are our Friend. You became human and came to fill us up with joy.

Christ - You are God's anointed one. You fulfilled God's plan for our salvation. We all belong to you.

Son of God - When we speak to You in our prayers, we speak to God. You are the Eternal one of the Eternal Father. We stand in awe before the majesty of the Holy Trinity.

Have Mercy on us - Have mercy as we are in need and really can't help ourselves. Your help is a gift we can't earn or repay.

On Me - You, God, know us, love us, hear us and have mercy on us personally. Can be repeated with these additions:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on _____. (insert a name of one for whom you want to pray)

As you read the suggested passage or passages.

- What word or phrase jumps out at you?
- What invitation does God have for you?
- What does this verse lead you to pray for?

C- Confession ...I am sorry

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. James 4:1.7

Read and pray using Psalm 32

Prayer based on Psalm 32

Gracious God you have so blessed us with your forgiveness. When we keep silent about our sins, we suffer; we groan in pain. But as soon as we tell you of our sins, You forgive us and lift our suffering and pain.

Almighty Father, we are often afraid to admit our wrongdoing. We forget to come to you for mercy. Help us remember to call out in prayer. Teach us Your will and the way You choose for us to go.

Your love surrounds us when we trust in You, O Lord. We are glad, we rejoice, we shout for joy in Your Love.

Prayer based on James 4:1-17

O Lord, instruct us regarding the passions that are at war in our members: Teach us to recognize our excessive attachments to worldly things, lest by friendship with the world we become Your enemies.

Almighty God, who yearn jealously over the spirit You have made to dwell in us, make us humble that we may receive Your grace; and let us not be proud, lest we find ourselves opposing You.

Help us to submit ourselves to You, and to resist the devil until he flees from us. Draw us near to You, Lord, as You draw near to us. Cleanse our hands, forgive our sins, purify our hearts, and make us single-minded in turning ever toward You.

Teach us to mourn for the miserable state of Your Church in this world, the wretchedness and dejection she suffers in striving to walk in Your Way.

Guide us not to judge one another, as the judgment of souls is Yours alone; but let us not forget our obligation to judge sins, because for this You have given us Your law, and by this, our sins can be forgiven.

All this we pray in Your own holy Name, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Psalm 130

¹ Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD.

² to the voice of my supplications!

³ If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?

⁴ But there is forgiveness with you,
so that you may be revered.

⁵ I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
and in his word I hope;

⁶ my soul waits for the Lord
more than those who watch for the morning,

⁷ O Israel, hope in the LORD!

For with the LORD there is steadfast love,
and with him is great power to redeem.

⁸ It is he who will redeem Israel
from all its iniquities.

Prayer based on Psalm 130

Merciful Lord, though I daily stray from you and fail to obediently serve you in all my thoughts and actions, you do not abandon me but call me as your beloved child. Thank you for your great mercy. Search the depths of my soul and cleanse me of all that inhibits true obedience to your Word. Cause me to not to rush rashly ahead in life but rather to wait upon you for guidance and direction, knowing that you possess all wisdom and knowledge. All this I ask in the name of Jesus, my Savior. Amen.

Prayer for Priorities:

Precious Father,

We have been taught 'You shall have no other Gods before me'. We do not do what you desire and command of us. It is regrettable how we forget to keep the first place in everything – YOU. Our priorities are in other things and in other places and not with you where they belong. Help us, Dear Lord, to change our ways.

Open our hearts and eyes to see when we allow other things to come before you. Give us wisdom, strength, and courage to change our ways and to stand up and say, 'We will no longer allow this to happen in our lives, in our families, and in our homes.' Guide us Jesus, to walk in your ways, keeping you before us and before everything else that seeks to separate us from you. When we are tempted to attend social events or athletic events instead of coming to your house to worship you, give us joy

Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive in our hearts and the desire to come celebrate Jesus and the precious gift that He has given us. When we are tired and exhausted, too weary to seek you, stir our hearts to come to you, both at times of Holy worship and in our needy moments during the week, so that we may receive the refreshment and spiritual healing we so desperately need, which comes only from you.

Help us to realize as we put you first in everything, you remove many burdens from us. When we totally give all of ourselves to you, God you care for us and guide us in ways we never knew were possible. Help us to make you our number one priority so we can be an example of a life truly committed to you. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Precious Father,

You are the most high and there is no one like you. We praise you and worship your Holy Name. You are forever by our side to love us, forgive us, and provide everything that we will ever need. Your ways are better than our ways. Help us so that we will always be thankful in times of plenty and in want. Lead us so that we will always trust in your wisdom and not in our own. With happiness and joy I give my life to you this day that I would be your humble and loving child. Read and pray using Psalm 119

Psalm 119:10, 49-50,105

¹⁰ With my whole heart I seek you;

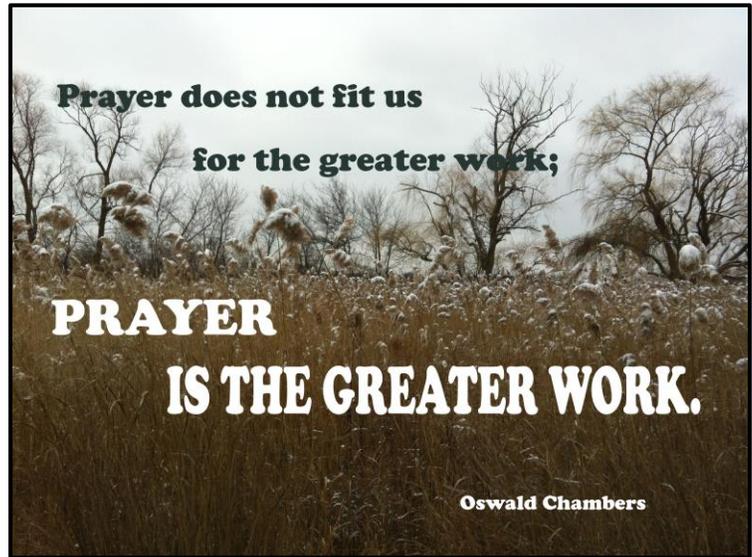

do not let me stray from your commandments.

⁴⁹ Remember your word to your servant, in which you have made me hope.

⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my distress, that your promise gives me life.

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

A prayer based on Psalm 119
 O Lord, Father in Heaven, Guide me.
 Mold me.
 Form me.
 Turn me.
 Teach me.
 Change me.
 Get hold of me
 Make me yours.
 Show me your Way.
 All day let that Way be before me.
 In every thought, breath and action
 let it be the beacon, the guide,
 the control, the path of my life.
 Help me follow your Way
 to the very end of my days.
 May I never stop searching and desiring your Law.
 Thank you for putting me here in your hands. Amen.

V- VISION...I act

I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him.
Ephesians 1:17

St. Mark's (Mission) Vision Statement

Worship – to give glory to God through the proclamation of the word of God and through worship and the sacraments.

Love - to build up the body of Christ.

Share – to give witness to God's love and salvation.

Grow – to encourage all members to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Serve – to seek to do God's will and to use our time talents and possessions in service to God and all people.

Read and pray using Psalm 100 Prayer based on Psalm 100

Gracious God, each time we gather for worship in your name we receive a foretaste of the feat to come. You present to us a vision of a world where sin is no more, suffering has ended, and joy lasts forever around your heavenly banquet table. As your blessed and forgiven children lead us ever forward by your light, illuming the paths of our futures by the reflected glory of your Son. Help us to share your triumphal vision with others, caring as you have cared, loving as your loved, sharing as you have shared. Throughout this year may your Kingdom be evident among us and through us, that we the church would overcome the cynicism and apathy of the world by living in the hope and knowledge that comes through your Word. Wherever we encounter pain or suffering may we offer the healing palm of the Gospel, wherever the devil is running amuck may we speak the truths that you have revealed in Holy Scriptures. Clear the fog of our human misunderstandings and cause us to keep our eyes on the revealed glory that is your Son's witness as we pray in His strong name, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Read and pray using Revelation 21:22-26

Prayer based on Revelation 21:22-26

Dear God, thank you for this vision, the greatest vision of all, life eternal in your majestic kingdom. May this vision bring us comfort in our times of sorrow and inspiration for every day of our lives. Cause the light that you have given us in Jesus Christ to shine brightly in our hearts so that we will be beacons of hope to the world around us. Stir within us by the power of your Holy Spirit, and give us a great desire to advance your kingdom until the whole world knows of your glory. Bless the members of this your congregation with excitement about what you have done for us in Christ Jesus and the power of his resurrection to bring new life for all. Give us wisdom in planning and strength to live out the calling you have given us through Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Spread of the gospel

O God, increase the faith and energy of your Church to desire to work for the salvation of all people, that they might be freed from sin and that hope be renewed in many hearts, to the increase of the kingdom of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For believers to grow in their faith

Reflection on your Prayer

Take three or four minutes after you have finished praying to reflect on the prayer. This is not part of the prayer, but a separate exercise.

How did the prayer get started? Were you aware of God's presence, or was there a sense that you were simply thinking by yourself?

Did any parts of the prayer seem especially "alive" as you prayed? Did you have times of strong convictions or emotion, and if so, what were they? Did they seem to be moving you closer to God, or farther away?

What difficulties did you encounter? Did you feel tired or bored or experience other barriers? Did you find your mind wandering, and if so, to what? What were you praying over when this happened? How did you respond?

Did you have any sense of being called to respond or carry out some action? If so, what was it?

What was the general "tone" of your prayer: warm and loving? Difficult or painful? Dark? Reassuring? Sobering? Foggy?

Did you pray with an attitude of thanksgiving and gratitude?
